

CORPORATE ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The World Affairs Council is a vital resource that gives companies a competitive edge by ensuring their top executives remain knowledgeable and internationally savvy. The Council can provide you:

- Timely, actionable information on international trade, economics and global business trends and opportunities from experts operating in a wide variety of industries.
- Access to programs and unique networking opportunities with U.S. and foreign government officials, leading business executives and economists who provide valuable insights on trade, investment and economic policy.
- Networking opportunities with other informed and engaged business people seeking solutions to specific business challenges.
- Staff development and continuing education.
