Friday, October 29, 2021 | Hilton Anatole Dallas

Keynote Speaker: Madeleine Albright, U.S. Secretary of State (1997-2001)

Dinner Chairs: Lucy and Henry Billingsley

Starting early in their lives, both Kathryn and Craig Hall were deeply committed to giving back to their communities through service and philanthropy. Craig has worked to promote equal access to opportunity for all Americans chiefly through professional and charitable work related to entrepreneurship. Kathryn has contributed through her professional roles in law, government, business, and policy-making, as well as through her leadership in establishing the North Texas Food Bank.

Today, the Halls continue to prioritize their philanthropic efforts, focusing on improving their communities, investing in the arts, promoting responsible business practices, and providing support to entrepreneurs underserved by traditional capital markets.
